Join us for Breakfast/Brunch at beautiful
Peller Estates Winery

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2010

Ever wonder what wine to serve with what food? Do the old rules of only serving fish with white wine still apply, or has change caught up? Join us for brunch at beautiful Peller Estates Winery to learn the truth in red, white and pink. Peller's Chef and Wine Master will help you navigate past the old rules and discover a much more sensible and fun approach to food and wine pairing. At the end of this event, not only will you have enjoyed eating in Peller's picturesque wine cellar, but you will have a new appreciation of mixing and matching tastes to truly set your meals off with exactly the right sip. You will also have an opportunity to see how discriminating your wine palate is, when you play "pin the label on the bottle" - can you identify a wine by its taste? Finally, there will be our well sought-after draw - you must be there to win, so please plan to attend. Both educational and pleasurable, this breakfast/brunch is a great way to start your day!"

Dear Companion,

Although I love wine, I am not a Connoisseur. This Nectar of the Gods has a rich history dating back to around 6000 B.C. Come and join me for a breakfast/brunch at the beautiful Pellar Estates Winery and discover a fun approach to wine and food pairing. See you then!

Kindest regards,

Rachel
